TSYS

A Global Payments Company

TSYS Advanced AuthControl (TAAC) is a patent pending processing solution which supports wellness incentive, directed spend and OTC plan benefit programs, by allowing health plan members to redeem incentive dollars at select retailers and plan-specified merchants. The solution enables TSYS to direct spend and auto-substantiate purchases from eligible merchants as well as define approved product lists from both brick-and-mortar and ecommerce retailers using open-loop purse technology. At TSYS, we bring together expertise in banking, payments and healthcare administration to help you grow your business, drive member engagement and manage costs.

Benefits

- Reinforces healthy lifestyles to help reduce healthcare cost
- Controls the use of incentive dollars as directed by program rules
- Supports the ability to include or exclude customized product categories such as healthy foods
- Enables members to earn reward dollars to individuals for performing healthy behaviors such as getting a flu shot or completing a health risk assessment
- Uses a plan-branded Visa® or Mastercard® that can also serve as a medical ID card
- Provides advanced decision logic such as real-time processing and authorization accept or decline
- Configurable to any wellness incentive or supplemental benefit program currency type including dollars, points or credits
- Supported by robust program performance tracking

Partner Network

The TAAC partner network has been established to provide our clients with robust options for program design customization to maximize program utility and member participation. Through the solution, TSYS can direct spend of incentive dollars towards merchant categories such as public utilities, transportation services, healthcare providers, and against our growing list of partner merchants.

Our partner network includes
